

Seac Pai Van Activity Centre of IACM

Rules for Use of Badminton Courts

1. There are two badminton courts in the Activity Centre and they may be rented for use by Activity Centre members only. The rental fee for each badminton court is MOP20.00 per hour.
2. Registration for use of badminton court is available by queuing on the day of use or advance booking. (Telephone booking is not available.) Each session is one hour. If no one is queuing for use of badminton court, the original user may continue using the court after paying the relevant fees at the reception.
3. Registration for use of badminton court by queuing or advance booking may be done by one person. However, membership cards of all the users must be submitted at the time of use of badminton court.
4. Those who have registered by queuing or advance booking must submit the membership cards of all the users and the receipt of payment of fees in person at the reception at least five minutes before the registered time to confirm the rental information. Those who are late for over 15 minutes will be considered absent and the session will be open for use for free by those that are queuing on site.
5. Members who have been absent from sessions of the facilities in the Activity Centre registered by either queuing or advance booking for five times accumulatively within a period of 30 days will be suspended from their right to make advance booking for 30 days.
6. Members may only queue or make advance booking for another round of registration after completing all their use sessions on that day (registered by either queuing on that day or advance booking).
7. Use of each badminton court is limited to 2 to 8 members at the same time. Users have to bring their own rackets and shuttlecocks.
8. Unless permitted by the IACM, the venue is prohibited from being used for any training course or other activities that are of commercial or profitable nature. If this rule is violated, the Activity Centre has the right to terminate the activity or refuse the rental immediately.
9. Users are responsible for any damage or loss of objects inside the venue and they must compensate for the corresponding amount.
10. Users should understand their own health conditions before engaging in suitable sports activities. Users are responsible for all the incidents occurring during the activity period.
11. Users must wear sports shoes with rubber soles in original colours which do not leave traces on the floor, otherwise they will be prohibited from entry.
12. Persons aged 10 or below must be accompanied by an adult to use the badminton courts.
13. Consumption of food or drinks other than drinking water is prohibited at the badminton courts.
14. Please take care of your personal belongings.
15. If anyone violates the mentioned rules often, or intentionally disturbs or threatens the safety of other users, the Activity Centre has the right to refuse their entry into the Activity Centre.
16. The activities in progress will be terminated one hour before tropical cyclone signal number 8 is hoisted by the Macao Meteorological and Geophysical Bureau. Users should leave the venue as soon as possible and keep their receipts of payment for arrangement for change of rental date or refund.
17. All rental fees paid will not be refunded unless the rental is cancelled by the IACM.

18. Notes on queuing on the day of use:

- 1) Users must show their membership cards to the Activity Centre staff in person to queue for a use session and obtain the queuing number.
- 2) Use sessions are allocated in order on a first come, first served basis. Free selection of sessions is not available.
- 3) If no one is queuing, the original user has to proceed to the reception and pay the rental charges to continue using the venue.

19. Notes on advance booking:

- 1) Users must show their membership cards in person to the Activity Centre staff for advance booking of sessions.
- 2) Members may book a session within the 2 days following the day of booking. The session is 1 hour long.
- 3) If no one is queuing, the original user has to proceed to the reception and pay the rental charges to continue using the venue.
